

Testimonials from tabla! reviewers

"The birth of tabla! was inevitable. The Indian community will finally have a specially created newspaper that caters to their lifestyle. I am confident that, in addition to being a sumptuous read, the paper will be a platform for raising awareness on relevant issues as well as regularly featuring topics with a cultural angle which helps build the readers' knowledge about their own rich and diverse heritage. I wish tabla! the very best of luck!"

"I think that this is the most appropriate time for SPH to come up with this great product... especially with lots of Indians coming to Singapore. It would give great insight on Singapore and India."

Dr T. Chandroo

"tabla! is extremely relevant because there are so many Indian expatriates here. For the Indian diaspora to get an up-to-date view of what is happening in India, there is no comparable product."

Mr Piyush Gupta

"A weekly wrap-up of Indian politics, business news, sports and Bollywood gossip - this niche has long been ignored in Singapore. I am sure a lot of people from the Indian community will be looking forward to the launch of tabla!, which fills this void."

Mr Alok Nautiyal
Financial Controller
Orient Express Lines (Singapore) Pte Ltd

“Indians have played an important role in Singaporean society since the founding of Singapore and the cultural happenings of the community need a platform for discussion and debate. So, I believe the launch of tabla! will help us channelise our thoughts for the growing Indian community in Singapore and South-East Asia. It is a good medium for the community to keep abreast of cultural and business happenings impacting the local Indian community.”

*Mr Girija Pande,

Chairman, CII-India Business forum, South-East Asia*

"This is a great idea. tabla! will provide a link between the Indians in India and the Indians in Singapore. It will also be a window for other communities in Singapore to know the Indian community better. "
